About This Report

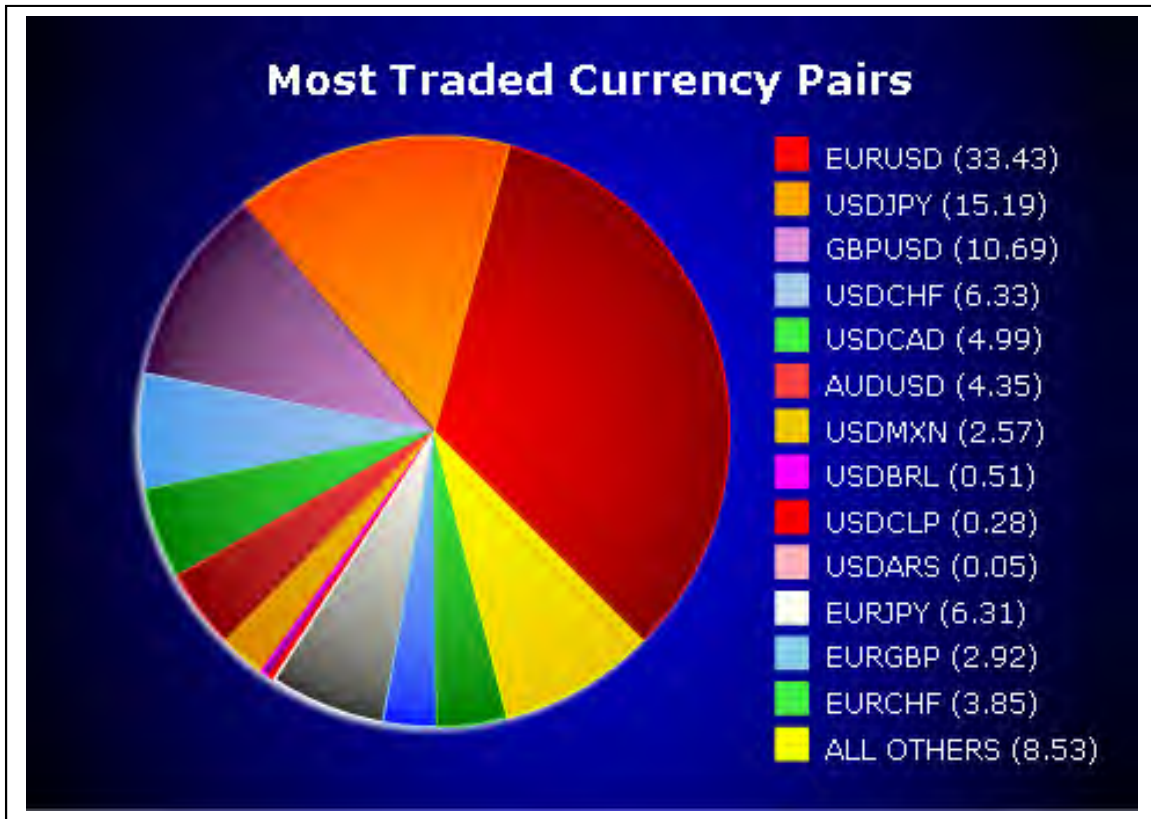

Sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the Foreign Exchange Committee (FXC) launched its Survey of North American Foreign Exchange Volume in October 2004 in order to provide the market with frequent information on the size and structure of foreign exchange activity in North America.

The Foreign Exchange Joint Standing Committee in London, the FXC agreed to collect one month's foreign exchange turnover data twice a year.

This DataInsight report is a summary of the FXC's semi-annual Foreign Exchange Volume Survey. The source of this report is the April 2008 Semi-Annual Foreign Exchange Volume Survey published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. The original report is available for download on their website.

Real-time and updated versions of this report are available for viewing at the ForexTurtle website at <http://www.ForexTurtle.com>.
